The Way...

The earliest Christians were called The People of the Way.

This weekly publication is provided to show how our congregations are living The Way today.

Prepared for a purpose

Timothy Dalrymple, president and CEO of Christianity Today, was a successful Stanford gymnast with Olympic dreams. But he broke his neck before the 1996 Olympic Trials and never reached his sport's "promised land." Although the injury led to chronic pain, Dalrymple doesn't regret his pursuit or even the fall.

Even while hospitalized, he experienced "a profound assurance" of God's loving presence. "If I could know the peace of God even when my health and hopes were stripped away from me, then what did I have to fear?" he writes. "It was a liberating revelation. Since God is with us even in the valley of the shadow of death, we need fear no evil, for no evil can take God away."

In the long run, so-called failure can matter more than victory, Dalrymple learned. "The purpose of my gymnastics career was never to purchase a few shining moments of gold-medal glory but to prepare me for the rest of my life. It was never about making me a champion. It was about [shaping me into the image of Christ and] making me an instrument [for the glory of Christ and for the good of the world]."

We are in the beginning stages of the Parsonage Remodeling Project.

Many volunteers with all kinds of abilities are needed! There are outside as well as inside tasks. Please see Kristi & Mike Pflug, Carla & Bill Conklin, or Jeff Nurrenbern for more details. There is a list of current items needing addressed posted on the parsonage refrigerator. This list will be updated as tasks are completed and ready to move to the next stage.

Anyone wishing to make a "2nd Mile Donation" to this project, please indicate "Parsonage" on your check or envelope.

Recognizing genius

Inventor Nikola Tesla, whose discoveries led to alternating current, was born in 1856 during a lightning storm. According to legend, a frightened midwife declared, "This child will be a child of darkness!" But Tesla's mother replied, "No, he will be a child of light."

As an adult, Tesla reportedly stood to applaud God whenever the skies opened. In Please, Sorry, Thanks, Mark Batterson writes, "Every time lightning struck and thunder clapped, it was one genius giving a standing ovation to another Genius."

Every day, about 3.46 million lightning strikes occur on our planet. "That is a lot of standing ovations," Batterson writes, "but according to the psalmist, the angels shout 'Encore' after each one!" He asks, "When was the last time you clapped for the Creator? When was the last time you gave Him a standing ovation?"

Matthew 28:19-20
